

2010 Spring Conference Pre-registration Form
Pre-registration deadline is May 6*

Germanic Genealogy Society
2010 Spring Conference

Friday, May 14 and Saturday, May 15, 2010

at

Luther Seminary, Northwestern Hall
2481 Como Ave, St. Paul, Minnesota 55108

Northwestern Hall is located at the corner of Hendon Ave. and Fulham St. in the northwestern corner of St. Paul. The nearest freeway exit is Highway 280 - take the Como Ave. exit. Turn right on Como and head east one or two blocks. Then turn left on Hendon and go up the hill and turn left into the parking lot.

Presented by

Stephen Barthel

International Reference Consultant from 1983-2004

for the Family History Library in Salt Lake City

Well-known author and professional researcher

Schedule

Friday, May 14, 2010, Luther Seminary, Northwestern Hall

6:30 pm Registration

7:00 pm Where are We Heading? Plus: Bizarre Stories in Genealogy

New features being developed by the Family History Department in Salt Lake plus several wild and unusual short stories in genealogy

Saturday, May 15, 2010, Luther Seminary, Northwestern Hall

8:30 am Registration

9:00 am Announcements & Introductions

9:15 am Breaking the 'Sound' Barrier: Working with Phonetics

10:50 am Passenger Lists, Police Records, and Unreadable Localities

12 noon German Lunch

1:30 pm The Gazetteer Goldmine: Finding Localities in Germany

3:00 pm Publishing Your Family History?: Yes, You Can!

Click here for registration form