What happens at a Workshop?

- Two short presentations: one will describe how to use selected GGS materials in the Concordia Library, and the second one will help beginners understand how to get started on their Germanic research.
 - 2:00 Using selected GGS Library resources (to be announced)
 - 2:30 Brief Beginners' introduction to Germanic Genealogy
- The remaining time is for individual help and research. Knowledgeable GGS members will be there to:
 - Answer your questions
 - Help you get started on your research
 - Offer suggestions to break down your brick walls
 - Offer assistance in finding your ancestral villages on maps
 - Offer assistance with your research in the library
 - Show you how to use the online catalog for the GGS collection housed in the Concordia Library
- You will meet other people who are interested in the same Germanic areas as you.
- Atlases and laminated maps will be available for your use.
- You will be able to learn more about GGS and what it has to offer.

The workshops are open to everyone.
